DESTINATIONS

Memorial Union

<http://www.union.wisc.edu/>

Phone: 608-265-3000

Location: 800 Langdon St., Madison

Cost: Free

Sit by the fireplaces in the Rathskeller or in the main lounge on second floor. View live bands. Babcock Hall ice cream made at the University is sold inside the Union.

Open Mic at the Rathskeller

I like that you can see live music from aspiring musicians.

Memorial Union Terrace

Relax at the University of Wisconsin Memorial Union Terrace. Outdoor terrace and tables on the shore of Lake Mendota. Free, outdoor, live music

Wednesday - Saturday 9pm-midnight and Friday 5-7pm.

Ice Cream

University of Wisconsin Babcock Hall Ice Cream may be purchased at the Memorial Union, 800 Langdon St., or, if you also want to see it being made (before noon), at the Babcock Hall Dairy Plant, 1605 Linden Dr. on the University of Wisconsin campus.

Michael's Frozen Custard, 2531 Monroe St. This store is very near the Lake Wingra canoe and kayak rental place.

Walk through the Capitol Building and the Monona Terrace

Capitol Building

(608) 266-0382

The best way to experience the beauty and grandeur of Wisconsin's Capitol Building is to see it for yourself. It is open to the public weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and weekends and holidays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Free tours are offered daily, year round except on the following holidays: New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas. Tours start at the information desk Monday through Saturday at 9:00, 10:00, 11:00 a.m. and 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 p.m.; and Sundays at 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 p.m. A 4:00 p.m. tour is offered weekdays (Monday - Friday), excluding holidays, during Memorial Day through Labor Day. The sixth floor museum and observation deck are open during the summer months. Be sure to view the holiday tree in the winter!

Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center

www.mononaterrace.com

Open to the public daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Grandview Café

Monday–Saturday 8 a.m.–2 p.m.

Located in the Grand Terrace, this lake-view café serves gourmet coffee, pastries, sandwiches and desserts.

Lake Monona Bike & Pedestrian Path

An essential design element of the building was to keep the 12 km pathway around Lake Monona. The bike path and walkway wrap around this building and there is an elevator on the east side that can accommodate up to three bicycles and riders at a time. The elevator, which was the first of its kind in Madison, enables bikers to move from the lake level to the Wilson Street level.

William T. Evjue Rooftop Garden

Open Sunday - Thursday 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.

Friday and Saturday 8 a.m. - midnight

The Otis Redding Memorial

A memorial to soul singer Otis Redding is located in the William T. Evjue Rooftop Garden. In December 1967, Otis Redding died in a Lake Monona plane crash near where Monona Terrace is today.

Concerts on the Roof at Monona Terrace

Cost: Free and open to the public

Wednesdays, 5:30-7PM. Enjoy an evening of dancing and great music with friends... all at no charge! Tunes at Monona Terrace has become a Madison tradition thanks to the generous support of the Evjue Foundation, Inc., the charitable arm of The Capital Times. Themed menu specials, snacks, beer, cocktails, and soft drinks are available for purchase beginning at 5 p.m.

T'ai Chi at Monona Terrace

Location: Rooftop. At noon in the summer Tuesdays & Thursdays

Cost: Open to the public and at no charge

Ease the stress out of your busy workday! Connect with your mind and body through the fundamentals of T'ai Chi in an easy to learn routine. Registration is available on-site. Wear loose-fitting clothing and comfortable shoes. In the case of inclement weather, class will be cancelled. Please call Monona Terrace at 608.261.4000 after 11 a.m. the day of event for cancellation information. Instruction provided by T'ai Chi Center of Madison, LLC.

Wollersheim Winery

www.wollersheim.com

1-800-VIP-WINE

Admission Is Free

Gallery Hours Tuesday – Friday 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. Saturday – Sunday 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. Closed Mondays. Check for days and times for the free guided tours.

“What I like about this particular museum is that it houses the art collection of the University of Wisconsin. It has a wide range of art objects ranging from 2300 BC to present. An unusual twist to this museum is the musicians who play in one of the galleries on Sunday afternoons from October – May.”

UW-Madison Geology Museum

www.geologymuseum.org

608-262-2399

Location: 1215 West Dayton Street, Madison

Free Admission

Hours are Mon-Fri 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

On your visit you can touch rocks from a time when there were volcanoes in Wisconsin; see corals, jellyfish and other sea creatures that used to live and swim where we now walk; and stand under the tusks of a mastodon while imagining yourself in the Ice Age. Also on display at the Geology Museum are rocks and minerals that glow, a model of a Wisconsin cave, dinosaurs and meteorites.

The Geology Museum is a great place for kids and adults. The museum has a small but impressive collection of fossils (dinosaurs, etc.) as well as a cool glow in the dark rock/mineral display. The souvenirs are even relatively affordable.
